Never Too Early

Bob called his wife from work in the middle of the afternoon. "I'm able to get two tickets for the show we wanted to see. It's playing now. Do you want to see it?"

"Oh, yes! She answered excitedly. "I'll get ready right away."

"Do that," Bob replied, "the tickets are for tomorrow night."

We smile because many of us, both men and women, require extra time to get ready. However, every follower of Jesus must live in a continual state of readiness. As the Second Coming of Christ draws near, we must all stay alert and watchful.

A buzz of interest is stirring about my current sermon series on Themes in Revelation. Here are the topics we've covered so far.

Grow in godliness
God is sovereign
Christ will return

We can be inspired and encouraged by Bible prophecy. We will add another theme this Sunday. I hope you connect with FBC for worship either in person or by livestream.

Together with you,

Les

In between games, for numerous weeks, the Youth Bible Study has added pieces to our puzzle. Last week, to a drum roll, the final piece was added. Jesus is seated on the completed throne!
Standing, left to right: Drake, Noah, Logan, Phillip, and Faith.

Again Jesus said,
"Peace be with you! As the Father has sent me,
I am sending you."

John 20:21

When it feels like you've been held back, consider that maybe God has pulled you back like an arrow so He can release you into your next place of promise.
