

INTRODUCING:

Mason Heller

Mason will be a senior at Bluffton High School where is a member of the National Honor Society. He is quite active, playing tennis in the fall and playing on the baseball team as a catcher in the spring. This summer he will enjoy sports workouts with friends, golfing with his Grandpa, and skiing and fishing at the lake. A book that he likes is Heart of a Champion and a favorite movie series is Star Wars. He is thinking about pursuing the field of business in college and will take Intro to Business next year in high school. Mason's parents are Gunnar and Traci Heller and his grandparents are Charles and Linda Isch. Mason often helps his Grandpa Chas fix communion and can usually be found sitting in the balcony with his family during worship. His favorite Bible story is David & Goliath and he really liked LOL class when he was younger. We are so glad that Mason is a part of our church family!

CALLING ALL LADIES!

The ladies of the church are invited to sing on Father's Day to honor our fathers here on earth and also our Heavenly Father. You don't need to have a solo voice to participate! All ladies are encouraged to sing. We will meet in the basement at 9:50 a.m. this Sunday for a brief practice. We will sing a familiar hymn that everyone will know. We look forward to having many ladies participate!

MISSIONARY REPORT

Mykayla Rodenbeck will be here on Sunday, June 24 to share about her recent mission to Asia. We will meet in The Gathering Place at 9:00 a.m. All are welcome.

CONCERT OF WORSHIP

It will be our honor to have Randy Kistler, Ryan Hirshey, and Brad Byerly (Adams Central Choral Director) provide a musical worship celebration during our service in two weeks, on June 24. You will not want to miss these excellent musicians as they lead us in worship of the Lord.

FOR PRAYER

Doris Wolf – successful rehab after broken leg surgery
Karyn Gilly – successful rehab from hip replacement
Clyde Shady – successful rehab
Ed Higgins – successful rehab
Kathy Mosser – healing of leg and back
