

Guilt Relief

A taxpayer wrote the Internal Revenue Service, "I have not been able to sleep well for two years. Here is my check for $1,200 for back taxes." He even signed his name, then added a short P.S. "If I don't sleep better in a week, I will send you another $1,200."

This guy had to do something to relieve his guilt, but he didn't want to do too much. Let me be crystal clear. Whenever possible, full restitution is both necessary and beneficial.

But only through faith in Jesus and His sacrifice on the cross can our sin and guilt be truly forgiven and cleansed away. After conversion, followers of Christ must keep short accounts with God by admitting our sin, turning from it, and thanking Jesus for the cleansing power of His blood. (Isa. 1:18; 1 John 1:9).

Thank You, Jesus!

Les
